Please set out full details of your representation of support or objection. If objecting, please set out what changes could be made to resolve your objection (Use a separate sheet if necessary).

Reasons why Site 1 should not go ahead, & be selected for developments.

The village is divided by a very busy main road, the A. 425. There have been numerous accidents mainly near to the pub. Only last week a woman on a motorbike was seriously injured and is still in hospital. Mr Ball from the Gyle House was killed crossing the road.

The village is divided by the extremely dangerous A 425. Pedestrians take their lives in their hands to cross it. To create a large new estate on the N. E. side of the A 425 would unnecessarily expose a lot more pedestrians to a very real danger. The same goes for cyclists,
